DATE: 10/25/2021

PLEASE READ TO ALL CLASSES AND POST

The Financial Aid Office has received information about the Jack Kent Cooke Foundation's 2021-2022 Undergraduate Transfer Scholarship.

The Jack Kent Cooke Foundation will award Undergraduate Transfer Scholarships to outstanding community college students who plan to enroll full-time in a baccalaureate program at an accredited college or university in fall 2022. Each scholarship will cover a significant share of the student's educational expenses including tuition, living expenses, books and required fees for the final two to three years of a bachelor's degree.

To be eligible to compete in the scholarship program, a candidate must, at a minimum, meet all of the following requirements:

- Be a current student at an accredited U.S. community college or two-year institution with sophomore status by January 1, 2022, or be a recent graduate (since spring 2017)
- Plan to enroll full-time in a baccalaureate program at an accredited college or university in the fall of 2022
- Have a cumulative undergraduate grade point average of 3.5 or better on a 4.0 scale (or the equivalent)
- Demonstrate unmet financial need
- No previous enrollment for a semester or more at a four-year institution

The application for the Jack Kent Cooke Foundation Undergraduate Transfer Scholarship is now available. In order to apply, applicants must submit an electronic application through the Common App for Transfer, which can be accessed via the Foundation's website at www.jkcf.org/transfer, by Monday, January 10, 2022, at 11:59 p.m. CST.
