The Financial Aid Office has received information about the Jack Kent Cooke Foundation's 2019 Undergraduate Transfer Scholarship.

The Jack Kent Cook Foundation will award Undergraduate Transfer Scholarships to outstanding community college students transferring to selective four-year colleges or universities in fall 2019. Each scholarship will cover a significant share of the student's educational expenses including tuition, living expenses, books, and other required fees for the final two to three years of a bachelor's degree.

To be eligible to compete in the scholarship program, a candidate must, at a minimum, meet all of the following requirements:

- Be a current student at an accredited U.S. community college or two-year institution with sophomore status as of January 1, 2019, or a recent graduate (since spring 2014)
- Plan to enroll in a full-time baccalaureate program at an accredited college or university in the fall of 2019
- Have a cumulative undergraduate grade point average of 3.5 or better on a 4.0 scale (or the equivalent)
- Demonstrate unmet financial need.
- Have not previously attended a four-year institution

The application for the Jack Kent Cook Foundation Undergraduate Transfer Scholarship is now available. In order to apply, applicants must submit an electronic application through the Common App for Transfer, which can be accessed via the Foundation's website at www.jkcf.org, by Tuesday, November 27, 2018, at 11:59 p.m. CST.
