The Cleo Parker Robinson Dance Company, based in Denver, Colorado, has been in business for 47 years.

The company has performed at ASU twice and looks forward to future performances. They performed several pieces: "Catharsis," "Holy Moses," "Mary Don't You Weep," "Roll Me through the Rushes like Moses," "On the Edge," and "Rain Dance." "Rain Dance" was inspired by Milton Myers and its purpose is to unite people. At the end of the performance, the audience was asked to stand and join the ensemble by showing off their own dance moves. The students really enjoyed participating with the ensemble.

Abbeville Talent Search Visits Rosa Parks Museum

Abbeville Elementary School Talent Search sixth grade students are pictured with a statue of Rosa Parks at the Rosa Parks Museum at Troy University in Montgomery, Alabama. The students were able to take a ride back in time to the 1950's on a bus recapping the life of Rosa Parks. They also toured the main museum where they learned more about Rosa Parks and other African American movements that have a place in history such as Martin Luther King, Jr. and the Tuskegee airmen.

Cameron Jones, Ethan Danzey, Zachary McDaniel, and Troy Hussey take a quick snapshot in front of the Rosa Park's Museum in Montgomery, AL.
