NEW TOOL TO STAY CONNECTED!!!

Trio Upward Bound (UB) has implemented Upward Bound News, a newsletter to help Upward Bounders, parents, high school officials, and Upward Bound's graduates stay abreast of some of the great things happening with Upward Bound. This monthly publication will highlight students' accomplishments, inform students of upcoming activities, and spotlight an UB graduate. So be on the look-out each month. Suggestions and ideas will be greatly appreciated.

SCHOLARSHIP OFFERED

Dahkwon Feagin, Bullock County athlete and honor student, has been offered the Academic Excellence Scholarship by Alabama State University. This scholarship pays full tuition, required university fees, and textbooks per academic year, for four (4) consecutive years. The award is renewable annually. Great Job Dahkwon! #TRiOworks

ANIYA DAVIS—CHAMBER OF COMMERCE JUNIOR AMBASSADOR

Aniya Davis is a member of Junior Ambassadors. The Junior Ambassadors serve the Chamber of Commerce and the Eufaula Community. Junior Ambassadors learn valuable skills that will prepare each student for high school, college and joining the workforce. The program also affords students the opportunity to meet local business owners and community leaders and establish long-lasting relationships. The Junior Ambassador program is open to all students in 7th-12th grades. Selection to the organization includes a complete application and interview. Congratulations Aniya!

WARHAWK DAY WITH A STROKE OF COLOR

On October 20, 2018, thirty-six Upward Bound students boarded a charter bus to enjoy activities in Montgomery. The UB group members were all smiles when they arrived on the Auburn University Montgomery campus for Warhawk Day. Our UB students were greeted by energetic Warhawk Recruiters for the check-in process and welcome session. All students attended breakout sessions on financial aid, campus housing, and the Warhawk Academic Success Center. The Warhawk activities ended after the campus tour.

After a fantastic lunch at Baumhowers, the UB group enjoyed a group painting session at Paint and Clay Art Studio. Students expressed their creative skills by painting floral arrangements and eagles. The Upward Bound group definitely ended the day with a colorful stroke of creativity.

COLLEGE APPLICATION WEEK OCTOBER 29 - NOVEMBER 2

Trio Upward Bound seniors took advantage of College Application Week during the last week in October 2018. Students were able to submit many college applications without paying the usual application fees. Many students reported submitting more than six applications online. With many high schools using Parchment transcript services, students were able to order and send transcripts for free. College application Week saved many students over $250 in application fees. Trio UB staff made a few visits that week to assist students with the application process. No “Senior-itis” was witnessed...Only SENIOR EXCITEMENT! TRIO WORKS!

Here are a few pictures that busy week:

ASU CONNECTIONS MADE ON NOVEMBER 3

Trio Upward Bound took advantage of an open invitation to attend Alabama State University's Fall Connection Day. The November third event started off with energetic greetings by student ambassadors and ASU staff as we reached the Dunn-Oliver Acadome. The official welcome and greetings included words by the ASU President, Vice President, Miss ASU, the SGA President, Athletic Director, and all College Deans. The WCC Upward Bound group had 46 students to participate in concurrent sessions to assist them in getting the most out of their future college experience. Sessions focused on admissions requirements, housing, financial aid, campus security (ASU Police), ASU deadlines. After the college fair, tours, and lunch, it was game time. Our group enjoyed the football game and witnessed the world-renowned ASU Marching Band. Spending the whole day exploring and enjoying the ASU Hornet Nation was a great experience the UB students will definitely remember.

Congrats to the Eufaula Boys Basketball team! They are 2018 Dothan Downtown Hoops Classic Basketball Tournament Champions.
